AWC CLIENT

"I don't know what I would be feeling right now if you didn't change my mind. I'm so grateful God sent me to y'all and that our family has our little Anastasia. She is so beautiful and is 5 months old now. When I look at her, it's hard to believe I almost throw away this precious life. I want to thank you again, too, about giving me advice about my husband, and now we're back together again. I also am grateful for the maternity and baby clothes. Now I'm expecting again, and we know this baby is another gift from God to complete my family."
